

Name _____ Date _____

Silly Story

Some of the words were left out of this story. The blank spaces list different parts of speech. Fill in the blanks with any words that are the right parts of speech. Then read your silly story.

Hints

noun—a person, place, or thing or an idea adjective—a word that describes a noun verb—an action

Many years ago, Andy, a member of the _____ (adjective) nation, was out hunting. He noticed a bad smell _____ (-ing verb) through the air. Andy decided to _____ (verb) a search and followed the smell. He saw that his pet dog had gotten sick. Andy ran home to get some _____ (plural noun) to make his dog feel better.

Read the story again. This time, fill in the blanks with the vocabulary words from this issue. Use the word that makes the most sense in the sense. The vocabulary words are listed in the Word Bank. You won't use all the words.

Many years ago, Andy, a member of the _____ (fill in the blank with an adjective) nation, was out hunting. He noticed a bad smell _____ (fill in the blank with an -ing verb) through the air. Andy decided to _____ (fill in the blank with a verb) a search and followed the smell. He saw that his pet dog had gotten sick. Andy ran home to get some _____ (fill in the blank with a plural noun) to make his dog feel better.

Word Bank

wafting
conduct
heritage
elixirs
incriminating
Navajo
appalls
treason
devastated