

Name: _____

What Do You Know?

Directions: Read the article “Pollination Information” (page 22). Then answer the questions.

1. What is colony collapse disorder?
 - A. a disease that affected the Pilgrims
 - B. the mysterious disappearance of bee colonies
 - C. the way chemicals in pesticides affect bees

2. Which of these foods require pollination from butterflies, bees, or other small animals?
 - A. strawberries, almonds, blueberries
 - B. almonds, corn, potatoes
 - C. apples, honey, wheat

3. According to the article, how much of the food we eat comes to us because of pollinators?
 - A. all of it
 - B. one-third
 - C. two-thirds

4. Which of the following would the students at Camelot Elementary School most likely agree with?
 - A. Bees don't have a very important job, because all they do is sting people.
 - B. Bees' most important job is to help students learn science.
 - C. Bees' most important job is to help plants grow.

5. What is the main idea of this article?
 - A. Pollinators, such as bees and butterflies, are important to the food we eat.
 - B. It is important to protect bees and butterflies.
 - C. Kids can learn about bees and butterflies at school.

6. Using what you learned from the article, what are some ways people can help pollinators?
