

Do You Agree?

For a sentence to make sense, the subject and the verb must agree. Read the sentences below. Do the subject and verb agree? If the sentence is wrong, rewrite the sentence so that the subject and verb agree. If the subject and verb already agree, write "correct" on the line.

1. Jamie or Carl are the best students in the class.

2. There's a lot of movies I want to see.

3. Those books on the floor belongs to Mike.

4. My brother, or my friends, are going out for dinner

5. The athletes and the coach is taking a bus to the game.

6. The movie, starring Johnny Depp, Orlando Bloom, and Keira Knightly, are coming out in May.

7. One of the cats start purring when I walk into the room.

8. All of them, including Adam, is coming.

9. Everyone in the class is going on the trip.

10. If Judy and her loud friends keeps talking, I won't be able to hear what's going on.
