

THIS SPEECH NEEDS HELP

Matthew is running for Class President and has written a speech for an all-school event. Small problem: he left out several pronouns and needs your help to finish it. Can you give him a hand and fill in the blanks?

Matthew's Speech for Class President

Mark Twain once said, "___ have never let ___ schooling interfere with my education." ___ know exactly what ___ means. We have ___ come a long way since kindergarten. ___ have learned important subjects like Science, Math, English, and History. But there's something missing. ___ have never learned how to like one _____. ___ have never been educated in Friendship 101.

_____ of ___ grew up together in the playground, but it doesn't seem like it, does it? ___ walk around this school everyday and ___ see cliques and divisions, scuffles and fights, misplaced hatred and animosity. ___ don't understand it. Does _____? It's high time ___ educate _____ beyond the classroom. Let's face it, next year ___'ll be off at college or traveling the world or...who knows where? This is ___ last chance to get to know each _____. Right here, right now, let's put ___ petty differences aside.

Vote for ___, and ___ promise to bridge the gap between all social groups. ___ have what it takes to do this. ___ all know ___ as the class social butterfly. ___ am friends with the "cool kids" and a confidant to the so-called "dorks." ___ am a "jock" and a "band geek." ___ am a part-time straight A student who occasionally resides in Slackerville. Because ___ hail from all these backgrounds, ___ can use ___ presidency to bring everyone here at North Lakeview High School together!

___ name is Matthew, and ___ am running for Senior Class President. A vote for ___ is a vote for _____!
