All-Star Cards

It's time to make your own trading cards, starring some of the most famous African Americans in history. Visit tinyurl.com/allstarcards to choose two people. Next, research those people online to fill in the cards. Draw or paste a photo of each all-star on the front of his or her card. Then let the trading begin!

A red-bordered card template with a white star in the top-left corner. The main area is a large white rectangle with a black border. At the bottom, there is a light pink rectangular box labeled "Name" in red text.
