

read[®]

2010-2011 Planning Guide

Themes:

(Issue themes are subject to change at the editors' discretion)

September 3: Who Are You? (Self and identity)

September 17: Fantasy Lands

October 1: Courage

October 18: Electronic Issue – Greek Mythology*

October 29: Witch Hunt (Salem and beyond)

November 12: Viva Mexico (Two national anniversaries)

November 26: Goals, Dreams, and Obsessions

December 10: Flowers in Winter (Hope and healing)

January 7: King Arthur and His Knights

January 21: Survival

February 4: Abraham Lincoln, an American Icon

February 25: Animal Tales

March 11: Baseball (Myth and metaphor)

April 1: The Topsy-Turvy Issue

April 15: A Shakespearean Comedy

April 29: The World Beyond Your Door

*This year's special electronic issue is Greek Mythology. It launches on October 18. At that time, you can find it by going to www.weeklyreader.com/greekmyths and signing in using your account number. In the meantime, as a subscriber, you also have access to our entire library of electronic issues. You can view them by going to www.weeklyreader.com/eissues. Check upcoming teacher's guides for more information.

Contests: Ann Arlys Bowler Poetry Contest & Take Five Writing Contest

Visit www.weeklyreader.com/read for more information.